SB 1250

Corporal Punishment/School District Policy
by Senator Sobel

Requires a district school board that has a policy allowing the use of corporal punishment as a form of discipline to review its policy once every 3 years during a district school board meeting. Requires that the board take public testimony at the meeting. Provides for the expiration of the corporal punishment policy if such meeting is not held in accordance with these requirements and other provisions relating to district school board meeting requirements.
